

Partial Table of Contents to Trail Guide

Dedication

Two roads
What is violence?
Patterns of global violence
What is nonviolence?
International, humanitarian and human rights law
Does nonviolence work against extreme brutality?
Jewish Nonviolence and Shmirat Shalom
Shmirat Shalom
Heneni ~ Here I am
Seven Sections
A Story
Did Nonviolence Work Against the Nazis?
Another version of 'never again'
Healing from Historical Trauma
Focusing on pre-war vitality as a form of healing
The Holocaust and Palestinian Israeli conflict transformation
Anti-semitism and Islamophobia

Introduction to the Torah of Nonviolence

Chapter 1: What about the Holocaust?

Chapter 2: The Roots of Jewish Nonviolence

Rabbinic and community strategies for minimizing biblical texts and rituals that promote violence
Seven rabbinic responses to violence in the text
The roots of The Torah of Nonviolence: seven middot

Chapter 3: Hitorrarut: Awakening to Nonviolence Within

Threshold Texts
What is Hitorrarut?
A note on shomer shalom theology
Ten practices

Chapter 4: Hakhnasat Shalom ~ Welcoming Peace

Shmirat Shalom: Texts Concerning Hospitality and Welcoming Peace
Stories of Abrahamic Hospitality in Jewish Tradition
The language of Abrahamic convivencia
Peacewalk Pilgrimage
Hospitality and the First Peoples of Turtle Island
Workshop on the Theme of 'Welcome'

Chapter 5: Shomer Lashon: The Language of Peace

The Language of Peace
Silence
Sacred Words
Multiple meanings
What can we say about each other?
Arbitration and Mediation
Breaking silence with the language of resistance
Dialogue
Organizing a dialogue

Chapter 6: Tzedek Tzedek Tirdof: Nonviolent Civilian Resistance and Study Texts

Time to burst the bubble

Promoting restorative justice through nonviolent struggle

Stages of tzedek tzedek tirdof, the pursuit of nonviolent direct action for popular struggle

Social change

Chapter 7 : The Question of Palestine

A Series of Laments

Sources of Peacemaking in the Tradition

The Geography of Occupation: common attitudes toward Palestinians

Israeli-Palestinian Conflict Transformation: not a balanced situation

One side possesses the economic, political and military power

The Anatomy of Occupation

Who profits from structural violence?

The human cost of structural violence: death, injury, emotional and violence and demonization of the other

The role of Christian Zionism

The end game: are two states still possible?

Slouching Toward the Unimaginable

Peace and shmirat shalom: a guide to Jewish solidarity activism

Changing Course

Moving forward into a shared future: let us be good neighbors

Epilogue : A Fool for Peace

Glossary